ARUNDELLS

Former home of Sir Edward Heath:
Prime Minister, Yachtsman, Musician

House, Garden, Art Collection & much more in the very heart of Salisbury

SIR EDWARD HEATH

From 1985, Arundells was home to Sir Edward Heath KG, MBE, Prime Minister. He is best known for negotiating Britain's entry to the European Community, working for reconciliation in Northern Ireland and opening relations with 'Red' China.

Arundells was bequeathed to the Charitable Foundation, set up in Sir Edward's name, following his death in 2005. Presented today largely as it was when he lived here, with gifts from famous leaders such as Richard Nixon, Chairman Mao and Fidel Castro sitting alongside beautiful collections of ceramics, glassware and sculpture.

THE HOUSE

Bringing together six architectural periods, Arundells is one of the finest houses in Salisbury's Cathedral Close, with parts of the property dating back to the 13th Century.

THE GARDEN

The house is surrounded by a beautiful, two-acre, walled garden that stretches down to the confluence of the rivers Avon and Nadder, offering a spectacular view of Salisbury Cathedral.

EVENTS & EXHIBITIONS

Arundells hosts a number of events and exhibitions throughout the year, from outdoor theatre and historical and political talks, to intimate concerts. Please visit our website or Facebook page for more details and tickets.

We are also available for private events and parties, so please get in touch to see how we can help you celebrate that special occasion.

THE COLLECTION

The house features artwork by Sir Winston Churchill, L S Lowry, John Singer Sargent, John Piper, Walter Sickert and Augustus John.

As well as a cartoon gallery, model ships made by Napoleonic prisoners of war, Sir Edward's sailing and musical memorabilia, there are treasures from the Far East- including hand painted Chinese wallpaper, a stunning collection of Japanese woodblock prints and much more.
